Comment : In regard of the Do Not Call List being cancelled or diminished. The telemarketers feel they have the right to call anyone. Well, I pay good, hard earned money for my telephone service and I feel I have the right to say what kind of calls I want to receive. never purchase anything through that type of service and we are told not to because of possible scams. So why permit this??? Besides it causes physical difficulties, as we get older we have problems getting around and if we are in the basement or far from the phone, you have to hurry to the phone and it is sometimes difficult and you get there and it is just a junk call. We immediately hang up anyway.
